

UNITED STATES ARMY
THE CHIEF OF STAFF

12 July 1955

Dear Mr. Dulles:

You were very kind to take note of my new job. I am happy in the knowledge that this post will allow me to work closely with you and your colleagues in the Central Intelligence Agency.

I appreciate very much your offer of a briefing upon your activities, one which I accept with pleasure. I suggest that our secretaries work out a mutually satisfactory time. Naturally, I shall be most happy to come to your office or to any other place which you may designate.

Sincerely,

MAXWELL D. TAYLOR
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Honorable Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.
